DEDICATED TO

Coach Rome Rankin

. . . who has the ability to live with people in perfect harmony, and to inspire in those who know him something of his own cheerful philosophy.

Since he has been at Eastern, the athletic teams under his guidance have gained the respect of campus and state alike. He is richly equipped to be the head coach at Eastern.

The final criterion of his character can have no better source than the people with whom he lives. Thus it is to the athletes in the stadium that we look for this final word. Their universal admiration for Coach Rankin is sufficient proof that the Seniors were justified in dedicating this year's Milestone to him.

FRANCES MOFFETT
1921-1940

Frances Moffett was the quiet incarnation of the six I's: Industry, Intelligence, Intensity, Integrity, Initiative, and Inspiration. The strength of her unassuming friendship lives in hearts she left behind.

LON LIMB
1917-1939

His was the flashing personality that makes for popularity and success. He had the character that conformed to the surface personality. On the gridiron, in the classroom, in campus activities, he received, and deservedly so, universal esteem. Eastern will long remember Lon Limb—athlete, gentleman, friend.

ROBERT PITTMAN
1919-1940

In all the affairs of his life at Eastern, Robert Pittman showed himself a diligent seeker after the truths that knowledge gives. The patient, unchanging energy of his work proved that he had found one of the greatest of all truths; life is the greatest when its purposes are ever directed upward.

FOREWORD

It is the purpose of this MILESTONE to present as accurately as possible, a pictorial record of the events of the school year at Eastern. It is the hope of the staff that this yearbook will serve on many occasions to recall incidents of college life at Eastern. To the highly ambitious task of pleasing the student body, the 1940 MILESTONE is respectfully submitted.

GOVERNOR KEEN JOHNSON

It has become the widely recognized aim of Eastern Kentucky State Teachers College to instill the youth of the commonwealth with ideals as well as to provide facilities for a well rounded education. At no period in our lives has this purpose been more important. To the youth of today there is offered abundant opportunity for the exercise of intelligent attainment, mental alertness, and strength of character. Fortunate, indeed, are the young people of Kentucky who come under the influence of the teachers and the traditions of Eastern.

Keen Johnson

PRESIDENT H. L. DONOVAN

During the four years that the 1940 graduating class has been at Eastern there have been many additions to the physical plant of the college. An effort has been made by the administration to better equip each student with those qualities which will enable you to succeed in whatever you attempt to do after you leave the campus. Eastern has served the Class of 1940 during the last four years. It now sends you forth to serve others during the next forty years.

H. L. Donovan.

R. O. T. C. SUMMER CAMP AT FT. KNOX IN 1939

A T H L E T I C S

Eastern's season record in football, of six wins and three losses, was a creditable one to one of the most outstanding teams that has ever represented the Maroon and White. The men of the Big Red mowed down their first three opponents with little trouble. Later in the season the powerful Bearcats of Central Michigan Teachers came out on top in the annual Homecoming game, by a score of 18-14. The defeat was indeed bitter, but fans all agreed that the Eastern gridders accounted for themselves well. Georgetown fell next; then came the "Hawg Rifle" classic with Morehead which the Maroons lost by the slim margin of an extra point. The final score was 7-6. The following Saturday Eastern unleashed her wrath on a hapless Union team, beating the Bulldogs by 32-7. From Bowling Green the Maroons returned on the short end of a 26-0 score. In their final game Eastern Kentucky's teachers met Indiana's teachers and the Hoosiers fell 28-7.

MR. THOMAS E. McDONOUGH

Director of Athletics

Mr. "Mac" is well known by the students at Eastern, and by leaders in the field of physical education throughout the South. His standards in the field of physical education are high and his efforts toward developing leaders are unceasing. He is also noted for his fine work as tournament manager for the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Eastern is proud of Mr. "Mac."

MR. ROME RANKIN

Head Coach, Football and Basketball

For five years "Coach" has been developing an athletic attitude at Eastern. During that time the calibre of his teams has increased steadily, along with the molding of aggressive, level-headed athletes. The students at Eastern love him for his friendliness and his sportsmanship.

MR. TOM SAMUELS

Football Line Coach

Tom Samuels' knowledge of line play and his ability to teach it has made him an outstanding line coach. In the spring and fall he may be seen on many afternoons putting his boys through their paces. The results of his fine instruction is demonstrated when the Big Red line holds back its foes.

MR. CHARLES T. "Turkey" HUGHES

Freshman Football and Basketball Coach

Each year "Turkey" Hughes molds the raw material from which Maroon varsity squads are made. His humor, affability and teachings are felt widely on Eastern's campus; Eastern would be incomplete without him.

MR. GEORGE HEMBREE

Baseball Coach

Year in and year out Coach Hembree develops a winning diamond aggregation; his squad plays many strong teams and turns in many brilliant wins. The "National Pastime" as coached by Eastern's Hembree is a well-liked sport on the campus. He is a familiar figure standing at third base urging his team on to another victory.

THESE MEN GUIDE THE DESTINIES OF EASTERN ATHLETICS

CHEERLEADERS

Another one of the many thankless responsibilities at Eastern is that of serving as cheerleader. The cheerleading during the past year was of a very high calibre and showed the result of many hours of tiresome drilling. The neglected courtesy of recognizing the superior work of the above cheerleading foursome of "Rusty" Wicklund, Nancy Lou Gentry, Marion Perkins, and Robert Beeler is hereby extended.

FOOTBALL

CARL KEMP

Fullback, Weight 185 — Louisville

During the time of his activity in football at Eastern, Carl was recognized as one of the outstanding fullbacks of the state. In the second game of the 1939 season against Cumberland University, on the opening kickoff Kemp suffered a broken leg when hit by a Cumberland blocker. As he was being carried off the field Carl was making his last appearance before Eastern football fans as his injury kept him on the sidelines the remainder of the season. His ability to shatter opponents lines on short plunges was missed and missed greatly. For his ideals and the sportsman that he is, he will not be forgotten.

WYATT THURMAN

Benham

Quarterback — Weight 162

Only a Junior and his second year as first string quarterback, "Spider" has shown himself to be worthy of all laurels. His ability as a player and field general contributed much to the Maroons successful season. He was chosen as the most valuable player in the K.I.A.C., being a unanimous choice for the All-K.I.A.C. Team.

CHARLES SCHUSTER

Chicago, Illinois

End — Weight 178

"Chuck" came to the Blue-grass from the Windy City and during his first year on the varsity was the outstanding end of the conference. "Chuck" was chosen on the Associated Press All-K.I.A.C. Team.

EASTERN 21
CARSON NEWMAN 7

In their opening game of the 1939 season the Maroons rolled over an aggressive Carson Newman eleven from Jefferson City, Tennessee, to the tune of 21-7. Reaching pay dirt in the first, second and fourth quarters the big Red team was never in danger. Wyatt "Spider" Thurman and Bert Smith shared honors in the ball carrying department assisted in no minor way by every member of the Eastern squad. Scoring was done by Carl Yeager on a pass, Si Sorrell recovering a fumble behind the goal, and Carl Kemp ploughing through the line. Statistics show that the game was played on an even basis.

E

EASTERN 20
CUMBERLAND U. 7

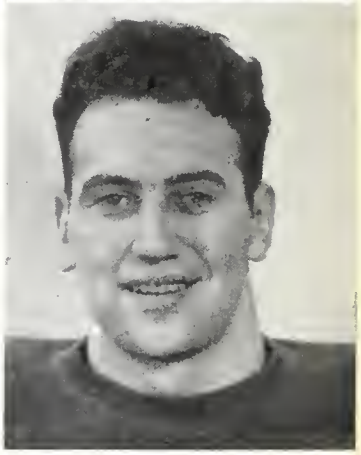
Cumberland next invaded the Bluegrass and again a team from the Volunteer State fell before the onslaught of the Maroons. Costly was this victory, when on the opening kickoff Eastern's outstanding fullback, Carl Kemp, suffered a broken leg and saw no more service during the season. The Cumberland - Eastern game was played in a driving rain, and Eastern's superiority was even greater than the final reading that the score board showed. The Maroons piled up 15 first downs to two for the visitors, and gained 275 yards to 47 for the Bulldogs. At the half Eastern led by only 7-0, but at the opening of the third stanza the boys in Red marched 76 yards for a marker scored by "Spider" Thurman; later Smith passed to Schuster for the final touchdown of the game.

JAMES HENNESSEY

Dayton

End — Weight 173

"Red" has ended three years of service at end for the Maroon team. Steady and dependable, this Irishman did his job well. Long remembered will be his play during the Morehead game of 1939.

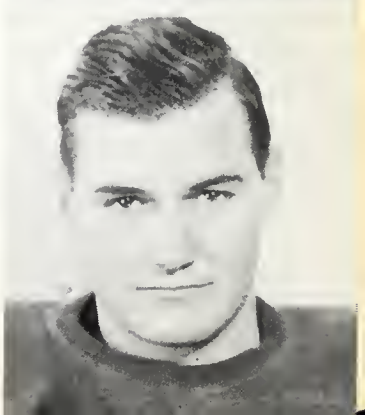


CARL YEAGER

Newport

End — Weight 182

The loss of Yeager through graduation will be keenly felt by Eastern. Many times the fans have come to their feet as Carl reached high above the defense to pick a pass out of the air.



MARION MORGAN

Fern Creek

Guard — Weight 194

"Butch" has played his last game for Eastern. Long will his ability and spirit be remembered. Playing where praise is seldom given, Morgan was a stalwart both on defense and offense.

HARRY LOCKNANE

Covington

Guard — Weight 190

Playing his last year for the Maroon and White, Harry continued to turn in the same high type of ball that is characteristic of his performances. An injury in mid-season held him back for some time.

HAROLD YINGER

Jackson, Ohio

Center — Weight 170

Harold was a transfer from Rio Grande Junior College. The Maroons badly needed a center and Harold stood out at this tough spot in the line. Backing the line, he stopped the drives of many Maroon opponents.

WALTER MAYER

Cold Spring

Guard — Weight 186

Alternating with Morgan and Locknane, Walter turned in a good performance every time. Since both of the regular guards are lost by graduation, Walter is expected to fill one of the berths next fall.

EASTERN 39
TRANSYLVANIA 7

Playing their first K.I.A.C. game, the only night game of the season, the Maroons rose to great heights to humble the Transylvania Pioneers at Lexington. The game was featured by the unprecedented blocking of the Big Red team. Transy was held without a first down until late in the third quarter. "Spider" Thurman and Bert Smith were too much for the home team as they slipped through the line and circled the ends almost at will. Bert counted three times, "Spider" scored once, and later passed to Nelson Gordon for another touchdown. Bill Cross, powerful Maroon fullback was injured while tackling a Transy runner, and suffered two broken ribs. Transy's lone score came on a pass late in the final quarter.

E

EASTERN 14
CENTRAL MICHIGAN 18

2500 Homecoming fans saw an outstanding Michigan eleven erase the previously unmarred record of the Maroons. Using a deceptive double wingback the Michigan lads plowed through the line and took to the air when necessary. The visitors scored first; then Eastern, on a pass from Thurman to Schuster made the score 7-6 in favor of the Maroons. It was a few minutes after this that all the fans were thrilled as the Bearcats' famed Wineski passed to his battery mate, Godleski, 40 yards away on the E. T. C. goal line to go back into the lead. Michigan's margin was seriously threatened as the Thurman-to-Schuster combine clicked again, and when the game ended the Maroons were apparently headed for the enemy goal again.

ORA TUSSEY

Portsmouth, Ohio

Tackle — Weight 210

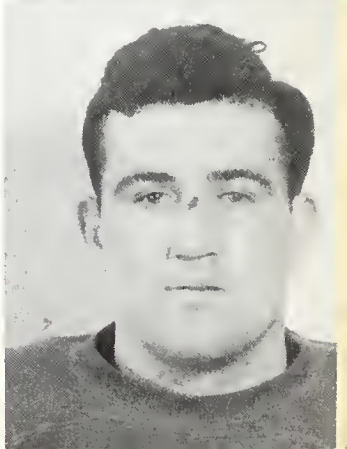
Maroon opposition will not soon forget this giant in the Eastern forward wall, who time and again stopped its offense. Ora's size did not hinder him in the least while performing for the Big Red.

TRAVIS COMBS

Harlan

Halfback — Weight 171

"Tater", one of the Harlan trio, gave everything he had as a blocking back. Opposing ends and backs soon learned to respect the blocking ability of this gentleman.



RALPH DARLING

Glouster, Ohio

Tackle — Weight 199

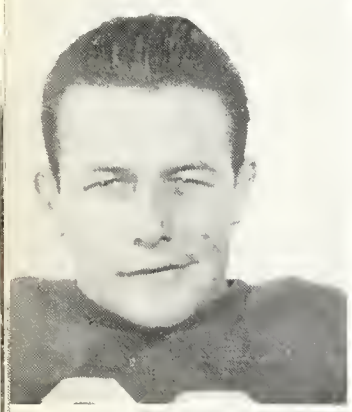
"Pug" made it known early that he plays for keeps. He uses his 200 pounds to plug every hole on his side of the forward wall and he does it well.

CLIFFORD TINNELL

Covington

Halfback — Weight 169

Cliff worked well at the wingback. Late in the season when a fullback was needed he fitted into that position like a veteran. He is only a sophomore and much is expected from him in the next two years.



HOWARD WATERS

Circleville, Ohio

Tackle — Weight 184

Waters, who was outstanding last year on the freshman team, continued his fine work as a varsity tackle by turning in a stellar performance in every game.

WILLIAM CROSS

Oneida, Tennessee

Fullback — Weight 175

One of the most powerful plungers in the state, Bill caused much grief to Eastern opposition as he time after time plowed his way to pay dirt. Defensively, none can be found better.

GEORGETOWN 0

Coming back strong to avenge their first defeat of the season, the Maroons took the Tigers from Georgetown into camp by a 21-0 score. Eastern's first score came in the first quarter when Bill Cross, Eastern fullback, plunged his way to pay dirt from the one foot line. Bert Smith scored twice for the Big Red, going over untouched both times. The Maroons overwhelmed their opponents in every way. Game statistics show that Eastern registered 16 first downs to four for the Tigers and rolled up a total of 320 yards from scrimmage to a net 56 by Georgetown. The entire Maroon squad saw action during the game.

E

EASTERN 6
MOREHEAD 7

In the annual "Hawg Rifle" classic waged on Rowan County soil, Morehead came out on top by a 7-6 score. The Eagles could credit a hard earned victory to their backfield ace, Vaznellis, who scored Morehead's touchdown on a 39 yard run and then place-kicked the extra point which was the margin of their victory. "Spider" Thurman sparked the Maroons in a 70 yard drive which was culminated by a pass to Carl Yeager in the end zone. The attempt at the extra point was blocked. This victory gave the Eagles a record of 3 wins and one tie with Eastern in the "Rifle" battles.

GEORGE ORDICH

Midland, Pa.

Fullback — Weight 170

When the Maroons needed that extra yard for a first down it was George who took the ball. His doggedness and determination added much to the morale of the Eastern team.

JAMES GOTT

Berea

End — Weight 175

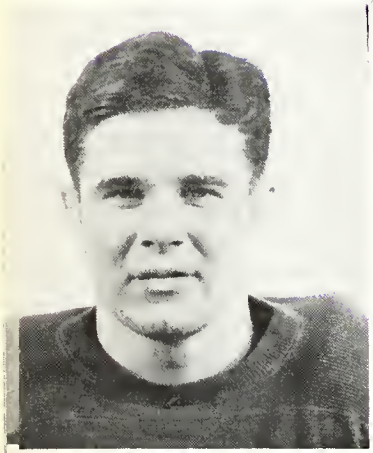
Playing the flank, Jim gave his all while he was in the game; he was always ready on both the offense and defense to exert every ounce of his strength to win.

WILLIAM HICKMAN

Covington

Tackle — Weight 180

Bill was a regular on the 1938 freshman team and last fall continued his work on the varsity. Only a sophomore, Hickman will have two more years of varsity competition.

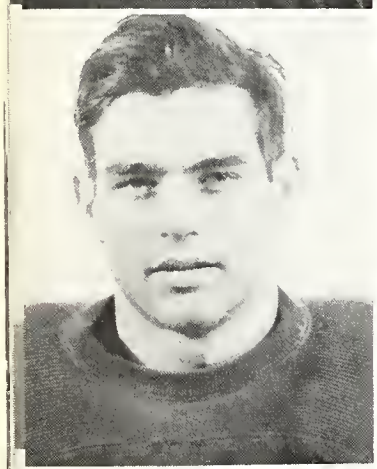


ROBERT MOWAT

Benham

Halfback — Weight 161

The man on the wing, Bob carried out each assignment and carried it out well. His vicious blocks account for much of Eastern's gains off tackle. He is a hard tackler and a fine defensive man.



FRANK FLANAGAN

Richmond

Halfback — Weight 168

Although he is an accurate passer he is used chiefly as a blocking back by the Big Red. Accepting his position dutifully he always turns in a fine performance.

NELSON GORDON

Richmond

End — Weight 158

Although the lightest man on the Eastern squad, Gordon made up for his size in fight and determination. Being a junior, more can be expected from Nelson next year.

EASTERN 32
UNION 7

Still smarting from the Morehead defeat the Maroons salved their wounds by smothering the Union Bulldogs by 32-7 in Eastern's final home game. Eastern tallied on the first play of the game when "Spider" Thurman intercepted Peace's pass and sprinted 40 yards down the sideline for the score. Bill Cross scored next on a plunge through the center of the line. Bert Smith reached the promised land next and to make things complete Thurman passed to Schuster twice for markers. Eastern did nothing wrong and the breaks went against Coach Bacon's boys on several occasions. The Maroons' lightning-like scores early in the fray completely disheartened the Barbourville boys who made several desperate attempts to overcome the Eastern lead.

EASTERN 0
WESTERN 26

Western's long record of victories over Eastern remained intact, but for three quarters the Maroons held the Hilltoppers at a 7-0 check. At the opening of the final stanza Zoretic, Oliver, and Magda combined forces to start the Western steam roller which went over the Eastern goal line three times. Both elevens turned in brilliant performances in defensive play, but the superior strength of Western began to tell in the last quarter. Although the Hilltoppers running attack figured prominently in accounting for the scores, it was their deadly passing attack that kept the Maroons back on their heels.

FRED DARLING

Glouster, Ohio

Tackle — Weight 180

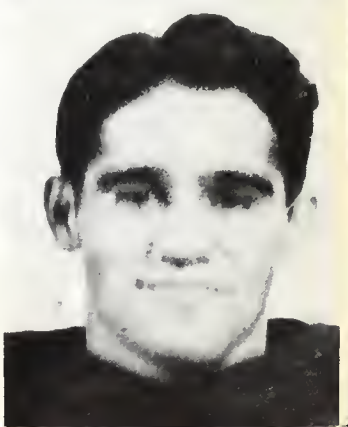
Shifted from end where he played as a freshman to varsity tackle, Fred was a mainstay in the Maroon forward wall. Opposing backs had little love for Fred and his jarring tackles.

BERT SMITH

Millfield, Ohio

Quarterback — Weight 161

His first year in varsity competition, Bert has left his mark on many of the gridirons. One of the top scorers in the state this young man has convinced every one of his ability and prowess.



KENNETH PERRY

Lawrenceburg

Guard — Weight 167

Perry, to Eastern opponents, is the original "little man who wasn't there" when they attempted to block him. One of the best blockers and tacklers to play in the Maroon line for many years, and he still has two more years to go.

An integral part of any athletic team is that made up of managers and trainers. Little does the average fan know of the great amount of time which the manager spends in cleaning uniforms, oiling shoes, accounting for equipment, and in a thousand other detailed duties. In the course of the season the trainer tapes hundreds of ankles and pounds for hours on the "charley-horses" of temperamental athletes. When the success of Eastern athletic teams is brought to mind, consideration should be given to the trainers and the managers for the important part they play in keeping the squad in fighting trim.

EASTERN 28
INDIANA TEACHERS 7

Eastern closed its season at Terre Haute, Indiana with a 28-7 victory over Indiana State Teachers College. Coach Rankin made the statement following the game that his boys played their best ball of the season, and that they did especially well in the department of blocking. Indiana scored first when the Maroons fumbled deep in their own territory, but Thurman scored for Eastern a few plays later and Morgan tied the count with a placement. Bert Smith figured in the next two Eastern markers — carrying one over and passing to Chuck Schuster for the other. "Spider" added the final touchdown of the game, and Marion Morgan ended Eastern's scoring for the year with his fourth placement of the afternoon.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL SQUAD

Front Row: Harry Marks, Joe Bill Siphers, Alfred Dressman, Norvin Ber Rasnick, Franklin Reed, and Warren Grob.
Second Row: Walter Kurnik, Robert Goosens, Ted Benedett, Francis Haas, Larry Lehmann, Harold White, and Gayle McConnell, Manager.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

The freshman football eleven played no actual games, nevertheless it was a vital part of the Eastern football machine. The freshmen learned the plays of Eastern's opponents and practiced them against the varsity, as the varsity prepared for its games. They helped the varsity to be able to win, and in the meanwhile gained valuable experience for themselves.

Eastern fans are looking forward to the advent of several freshmen into varsity football next year. In the forward wall such stalwarts as White, Reed, Rasnick, and Haas will possibly hold forth. In the backfield Siphers and Dressman may be seen in action if any prediction can be made from their fine showing in spring training.

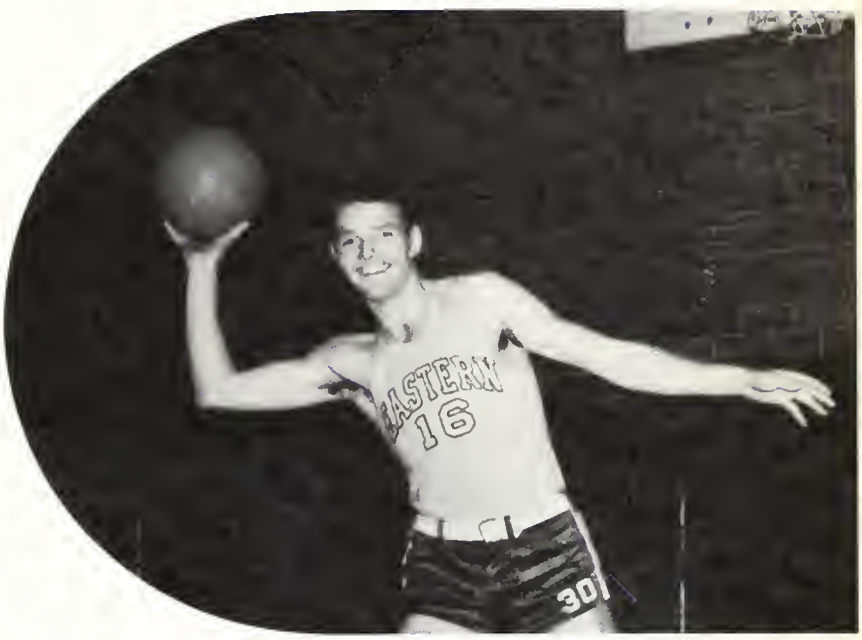
B A S K E T B A L L



Led by captain Virgil McWhorter in his last year as a Maroon hardwood performer, the all-powerful Eastern team of 1939-40 emerged from its regular season with fifteen wins against a lone defeat. This record was the best of the K.I.A.C or the S.I.A.A. but only the winners of the tournaments are recognized as the champions of these athletic conferences.

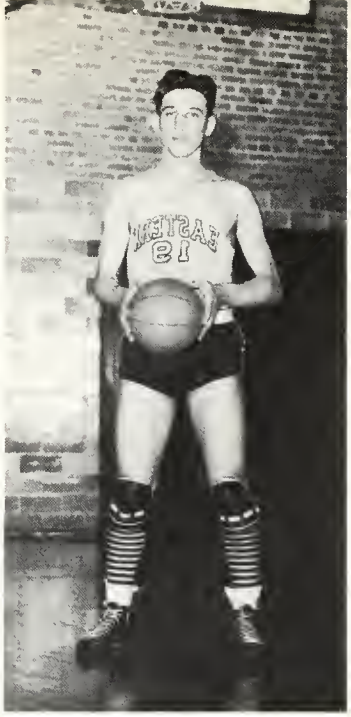
The big red team swept aside all opposition until late in the season when the high flying Western Hilltoppers invaded the Bluegrass and handed the Rankinmen their initial setback in retaliation for the win over them by Eastern earlier in the season.

In the annual Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tournament held at Eastern the Maroons reached the semi-finals where they were set back by the Morehead Eagles.

ROBERT ABNEY

Berea — Forward

One of Eastern's athletic staff members has said that he is one of the all time greats in basketball at Eastern. The fans know him for his furious, deadly ballplaying.



VERNON SHETLER

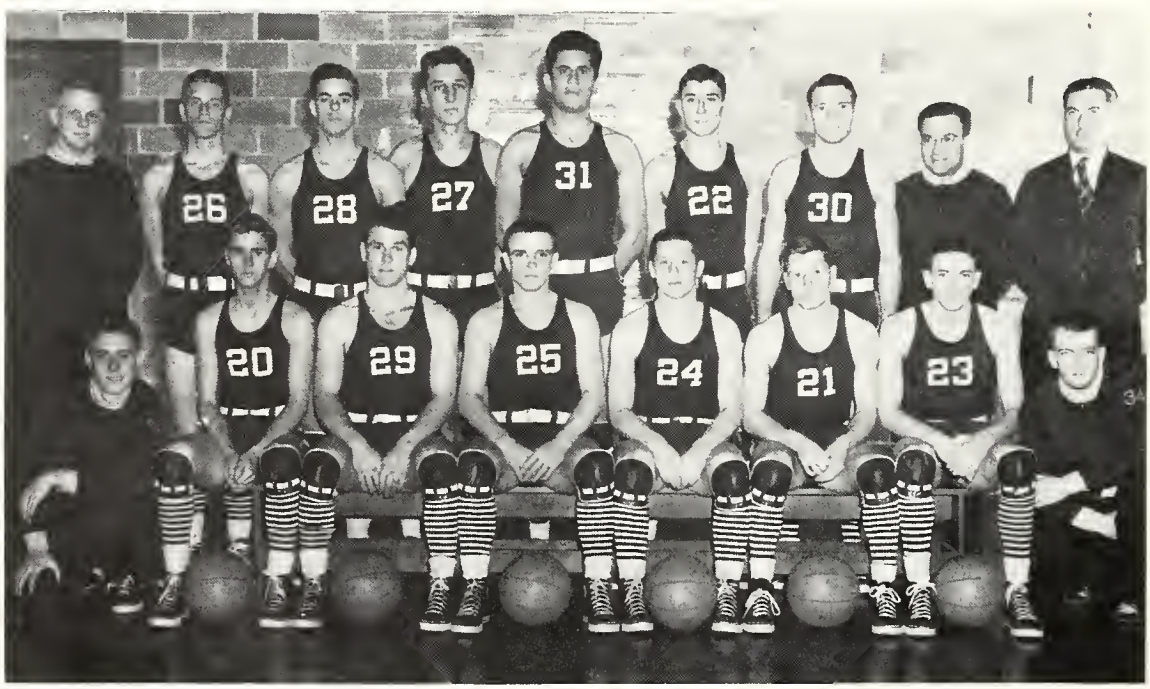
Navarre, Ohio — Center

Playing at the pivot position he reverses the orthodox procedure and shoots with amazing accuracy with his left hand. Big and rangy, "Lefty is hard to guard successfully.

CHARLES PERRY

Dayton — Guard

He is one of the most brilliant ball handlers on the squad; a team man, he never lets up until the final whistle. Fans are looking forward to watching Peck perform next season.



THE 1939-40 BASKETBALL SQUAD

Front row: Rose (Trainer), Perry, Schuster, Tinnell, Thurman, Smith, Abney, and Brown (Manager).

Back row: Griffith (Manager), Demoisey, Gott, Shetler, Tussey, Osborne, McWhorter (Captain), Coach Rankin, and Mr. T. E. McDonough.

ORA TUSSEY

Portsmouth, Ohio Center

He gave his utmost to aid in Maroon wins, it was he who held down the high scoring Towers as Eastern defeated Western for the first time in five seasons

SPIDER THURMAN

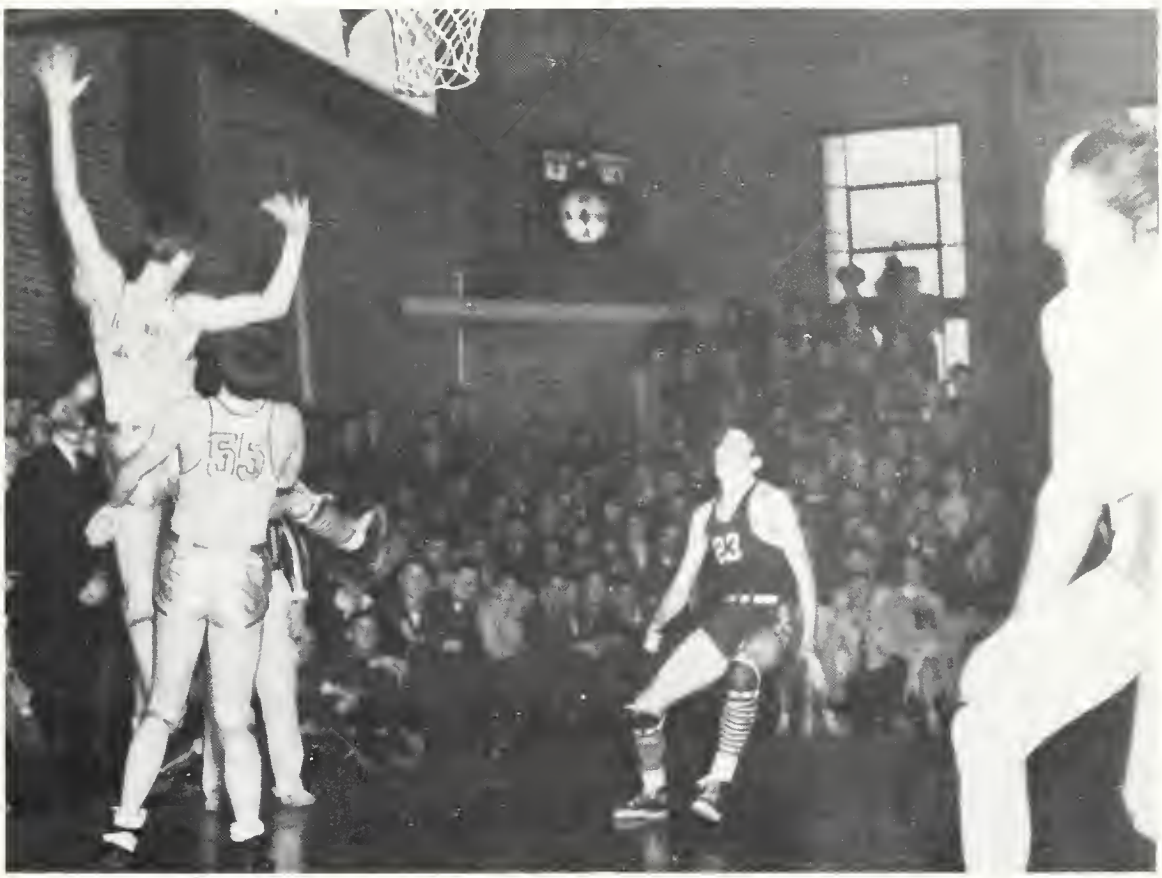
Benham Guard

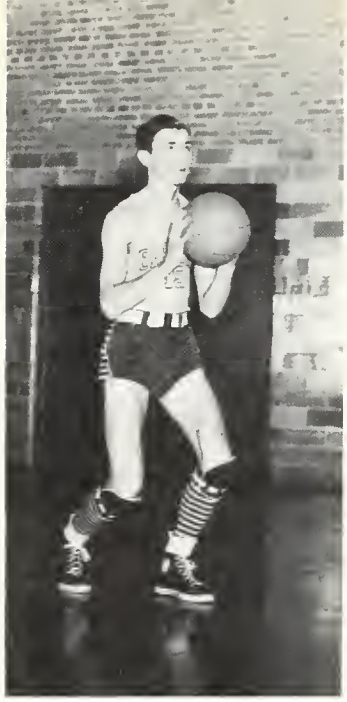
He plays in the same fine manner on the basketball floor as on the gridiron. His ability to make long shots has pulled the Maroons through to a win several times.

CLIFFORD TINNELL

Covington Guard

A marvel of muscular coordination, he is the perfect fan's basketball player, such flash and consistency on the hardwood have not been seen at Eastern in many years





HOMER OSBORNE

Walton — Forward

When given the opportunity he showed that he possesses great ability as a basketball player. In the future he may do much for the Maroons with his accurate shooting from near the sidelines.

CHARLES SCHUSTER

Chicago, Illinois — Center

Playing his first year with the Maroons he came through in fine style. For a small man he is outstanding under the basket and scores consistently on the rebounds.

FRED DARLING

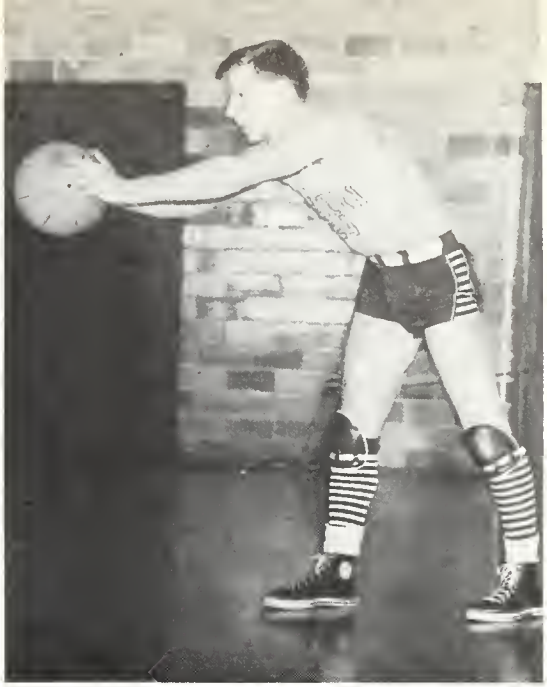
Glouster, Ohio — Guard

It was late in the season when he joined the squad, but he seemed to be well versed in the game; he was a steady, cooperative player.

FOX DeMOISEY

Walton Guard

Maroon foes respected his keen shooting and feared his defensive action. In his first year as a varsity squad member he consistently played great basketball.



BERT SMITH

Millfield, Ohio Guard

Aggressiveness and determination have made him a fine ballplayer. When he goes into the game his teammates know that an able player is on the floor.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SQUAD

First Row: Walter Kurnik, Vernon Kalb, Francis Hall, Copper John Campbell, Billy Greene, Robert Worthington.
Second Row: Charles "Turkey" Hughes, Coach; Joe Bill Siphers, Joseph Campbell, Norvin Ber Rasnick, D T. Ferrell, Bruce Calder, Charles Dorne

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The 1939-40 edition of the Baby Maroons, as in past years, was an outstanding one. Known to almost every Eastern basketball fan after his first game was "Copper" John Campbell, all-state high school player from Hindman, who with his uncanny ability to hit the rim from almost any spot on the floor gained the respect of all opponents of the Frosh.

Other prospects of varsity calibre were Francis Haas, Norvin Ber Rasnick, Joe Bill Siphers, Vernon Kalb, Walter Kurnik. The season's record:

Eastern	39	Wesleyan	23
Eastern	44	Morehead	21
Eastern	54	Berea	33
Eastern	27	Morehead	37
Eastern	37	Wesleyan	22
Eastern	29	Kentucky	53

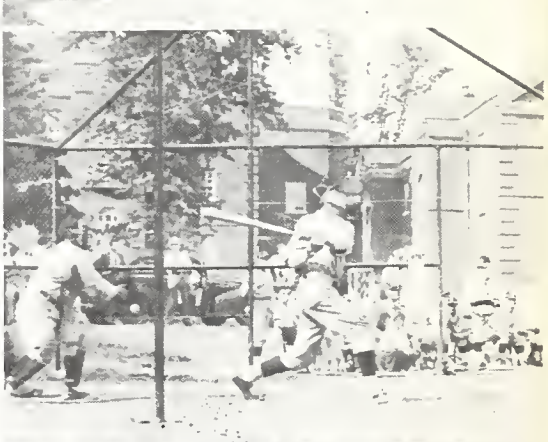
BASEBALL TEAM

First Row: George Nash, Bert Smith, Bill Smith, Cliff Tinnell, Harold Porter, John Bell, Charles Perry, Charles Schuster.
Second Row: Arlie Noble, Tom Combs, Vernon "Lefty" Shetler, Walter Hill, Donald Music, Carl Yeager, Clarence Combs, John Blevins.
Third Row: George Hembree, Coach; Robert Beeler, Harold Hibbitts.

BASEBALL

Playing with an almost entirely new team the Maroon baseball nine in their two games played before the Milestone went to press, showed strength in every department. Back from last year's squad are Donald Music and Charles Perry at first base, Harold Porter in the outfield, and Carl Yeager and Vernon Shetler pitching. Recruits are Bill Smith, Bert Smith, Charles Schuster, George Nash and Cliff Tinnell. At this writing Eastern has won two games —defeating Earlham College of Richmond, Indiana 7-0 behind the two hit pitching of "Lefty" Shetler and trouncing the University of Cincinnati by the score of 12-5 behind the hurling of Carl Yeager. Because of inclement weather conditions the Maroons had very little outdoor practice until after their first game, but lack of outdoor practice has not detracted from their ability to win.



TENNIS TEAM

Coach Charles "Turkey" Hughes, Harold Mills, Claude Harris, William Petty, James Squires, Billy Farris, Coleman Whitaker, Robert Stinson.

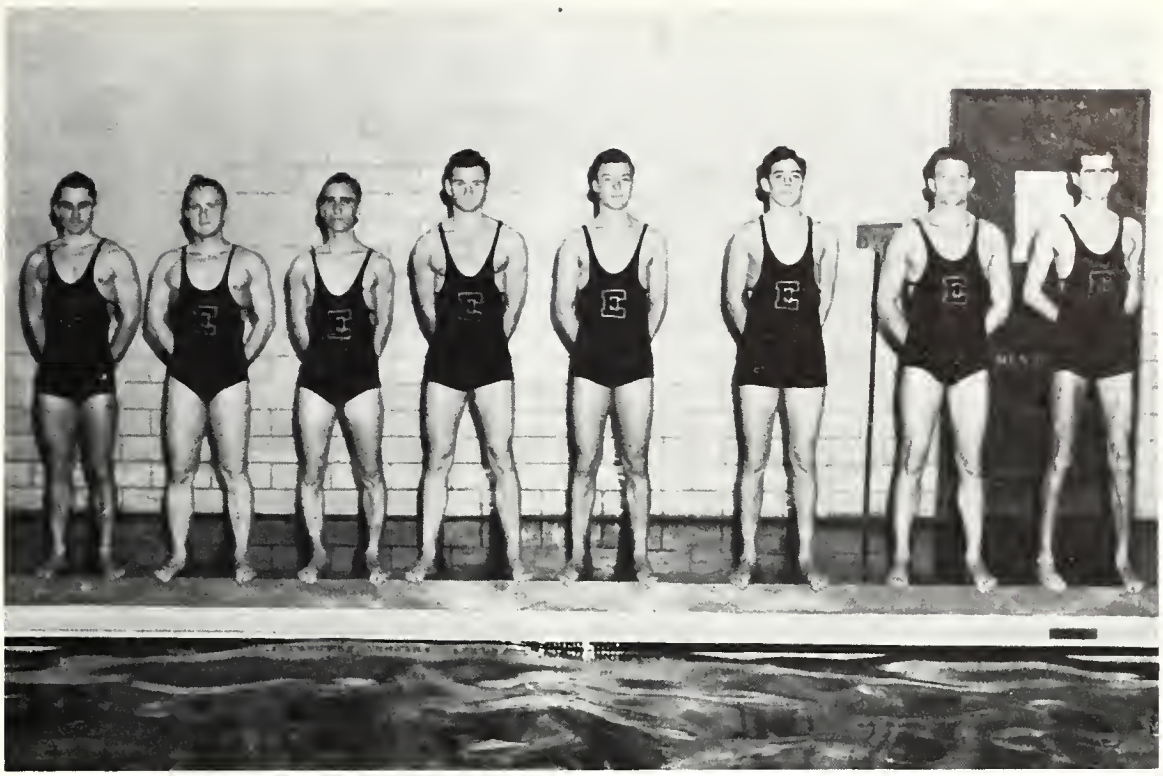
TENNIS

When the 1940 Milestone went to press there had been virtually no definite plan as to the tennis team which was to represent Eastern this season. Coach Hughes in a late interview said that he considered this year's group of aspirants for the tennis team as one of the best he has had to work with in several years. Coach Hughes also stated that due to lack of courts his expectations were none too high.

From observation it appears that Petty, Whitaker, Harris and Farris will do much of the heavy work during the season. Other members of the squad are Stinson, Mills, Squires and McSpadden.

THE TENNIS SCHEDULE:

Western	April 27	Home
Berea	April 29	Berea
Centre	May 6	Home
Western	May 11	Bowling Green
Centre	May 16	Danville
Union	May 18	Home
Union	May 22	Barbourville
Berea	May 25	Home



SWIMMING TEAM

Robert Dickman, Coach; John Center, Morris Garrett, Paul Love, Coleman Whitaker, James Brock, James Hennessey, Guy Whitehead.

SWIMMING

In seven swimming meets held during the 1940 season the Eastern tankmen emerged with a record of two wins and five losses. The 1940 season marked the last for Coach and Captain Robert Dickman, who is not only one of the greatest swimmers ever seen at Eastern but was an outstanding swimmer in the state during his college career. Handicapped by the lack of material, the Eastern mermen never let up as they defeated Berea and Morehead and fell before the University of Kentucky, Maryville, Murray, and Berea.

At the K.I.A.C. meet at Morehead, Eastern was forced to accept second place when they were unable to enter an eligible swimmer in the final event.

TRACK TEAM

First Row: Gayle McConnell, Howard Hundemer, Anthony A. McCord, Virgil McWhorter.
Second Row: Bert Smith, Ora Tussey, Fred Darling, Walter Hill, Tom Samuels, Coach; George Ordich, Bill Smith.

TRACK

Track has been Eastern's "struggling sport" for many years. It has been a very difficult problem for Eastern track coaches to muster the necessary material to form a representative track aggregation for the Maroon and White. Spring football practice and baseball have required the time of most of Eastern's track prospects which might otherwise have been given to developing a track team. This year Eastern is fortunate in having its largest track squad in several seasons, and track fans are hoping that this interest will continue so that track will come into its own at Eastern Teachers College. The members of this year's track squad and the events in which they participate are as follows: Bert Smith—pole vault, dash, broad jump, and relay; Bill Smith— pole vault; Walter Hill—javelin; Howard Hundemer—100-yard dash and the half-mile; George Ordich—low hurdles, relay, and 100-yard dash; Virgil McWhorter—100 and 220-yard dashes, the half-mile, broad jump, relay, and the mile; Robert Mowat—440-yard dash; Ray Nelson—half-mile, mile, and two mile; Ora Tussey—shot put, and discus; Anthony McCord—100-yard dash, and the broad jump; Fred Darling—shot put and the discus.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASSES AND ACTIVITIES

C A M P U S L I F E

The snapshot section of the Milestone portrays campus activity in its intimate naturalness. A cross-section of campus life has been caught and put into this book with the hope that it will call to mind similar instances in the college experiences of not only the students in the pictures but of everyone.

VERTEBRAE OF EASTERN COMMITTEES

At Eastern—as on every college campus—there is found that group of students which virtually forms the backbone of many organizations with regard to carrying out various programs which are undertaken. The point has apparently been reached that when someone accepts a responsibility he is expected to carry out the entire task, even to the most minute detail. Fortunately, we have on our campus some of those people who are capable of serving as "one-man committees". After accepting burdensome duties, these stagehands have never complained as they have devoted many hours to doing what should have been divided among several persons. With the aim of recognizing people who have had the concern of their different groups at heart and who have worked unselfishly in accomplishing things for them, this section of the Milestone is dedicated. The Milestone staff feels certain that in making its selection, deserving persons may have been overlooked, but it is the hope of the staff that this section of the book will appear every year and that persons who might not have been mentioned this time will be considered in future editions of the Milestone.

MARTHA EUBANK

Martha Eubank came to the front as president of the Home Economics Club and in that position she worked tirelessly, just as she did on various other committees—notably the Senior girls' reception and dinner.

ANN RODGERS

The quite unselfishness of Ann Rodgers and her untiring devotion toward helping others in her work as a desk girl and in the Y.W.C.A. has earned for her the fondest admiration of her associates.

DOROTHY DUNAWAY

Dorothy Dunaway has held membership in the most active clubs on the campus, and the part which she has played in their activities speaks for itself. Her work in the L.T.C. and the Kappa Delta Pi vouch for this statement.

JEAN CAINES

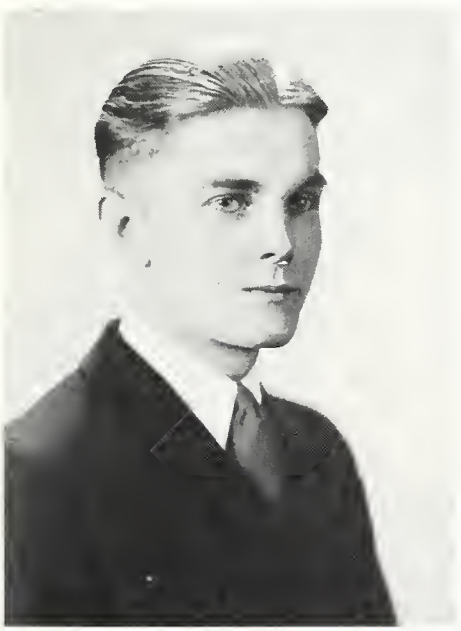
Jean Caines, with her cheerful smile and eagerness to do something for everyone who contracts her as a desk girl and in other campus activities holds a position of respect rarely attained.

RICHARD BROWN

For Richard Brown it suffices to say that on more than one occasion he proved himself to be a "one-man organization." He has always been ready to assume the unpleasant task that others turned down.

ARTHUR KLEIN

It is useless to say that musical programs play a prominent part on the calendar at Eastern. For several years Arthur Klein has literally set the stage for every type of musical concert on the campus.



BILLY FARRIS

Certainly the thought of receiving recognition did not enter the mind of Billy Farris when he undertook such tasks as getting transportation for the Y retreats or the chairmanship of the finance committee of the Junior class.

JIM STAYTON

When Eastern students attended the all-campus Christmas party, few knew that it was almost solely carried out by Jim Stayton. A tireless worker and a conscientious helper—Jim is a good person to place a responsibility upon.

ORGANIZATIONS

Extra-curricular activities at Eastern are closely correlated with the classroom program. The work of organizations on the campus has been greatly facilitated by having as meeting places the fine conference rooms in the new Student Union Building. As the school grows, and educational activities progress, the work of other student groups also goes forward.

Take Us Along . . .

We sincerely hope that the pleasant association we've known has been a mutual one . . . and that our organization may continue its value giving service, no matter where your paths may lead.

The Penney by-word of value is a national one. And with nearly sixteen hundred stores in America, you're sure to find us somewhere in your neighborhood.

You who remain, we thank you for your patronage and suggest the J. C. Penney Saving Lesson as a part of your daily curriculum.
